SHARED DEATH EXPERIENCE: TRANSITION, LIFE REVIEW, AFTERLIFE REUNION & BILOCATION

If you haven't heard Scott Taylor speak about his life-changing experience, you'll be moved and uplifted by his account.

In an interview on Passion Harvest by host Luisa, Dr Scott Taylor, PhD, president and executive director of the Monroe Institute, reveals the experience that transformed everything.

Scott Taylor had a Shared Death Experience 1981.

Ever since, he has been committed to exploring and raising awareness of near-death experiences. He wrote his doctoral dissertation on how near-death experiencers live in unity.

His vision for Monroe is its expanded global distinction as the world's go-to organization for exploring human consciousness. He is America's foremost facilitator of near-death experiences, meditations and retreats, having helped thousands explore the nonphysical universe and the journey of transition.

This is his story, and this is his passion.
